

PocketGenie 5.0 QuickStart Guide

About PocketGenie

Opening up <http://www.pocketgenie.com> from your RIM Wireless Handheld™ gives you access to more than 200 PocketGenie™ services.

The first time you use PocketGenie, you'll need to create an account. Enter a password and your handheld's email address then click on the Create Account link at the bottom of the screen.

If you ever forget your password, enter your handheld's email address then click on Forgot Password. WolfeTech will email your PocketGenie password to your handheld.

My PG

After you've created a PocketGenie account, you'll be able to set PocketGenie preferences, design the PocketGenie main page, and configure PocketGenie Alerts from the My PG page.

Setting Preferences

PocketGenie can save your preferences for locations, portfolios, sports teams, and movie theatres. Setting a preference for

- My Locations puts your information in the Start Location drop-down menu in Driving
- My Portfolios puts your information in the Select a Portfolio drop-down menu in the View/Modify Stock Portfolio options in Finance
- My Teams puts your information in Sports
- My Movie Theatres puts your information in the Movie by Theater option in Entertainment

You can change your preferences from the Set Preferences page in My PG or by clicking the add/edit links on the pages where your preference information appears.

Designing the Main Page

It's easy to personalize the PocketGenie Main Page.

- From the Select Order drop-down menus, you can organize your Main Page—or choose to remove information from the Main Page (you can always add it back again later).
- Click on the Trackwheel to add or remove horoscopes to your Main Page and to add or remove news headlines and sports scoreboards.

- Click on the Trackwheel and enter text to include lottery results, delayed stock quotes, and a 5-day forecast.
- Click on MLB, NBA, NFL, or NHL then choose your team from the drop-down menu to have the next game day or final score of the last game played appear on your Main Page .

After you make your selections, click Change Main Page at the bottom of the screen for the changes to take effect.

Configuring Alerts

Configured Alerts is information that PocketGenie automatically sends you at a time and day you choose. Configuring Alerts helps save character charges by eliminating the need to query for the information.

- Configure Alerts for Entertainment, Financial, News, Sports, and Weather by clicking on a category then choosing the days and times you'd like the information sent.
- If you're outside the Pacific time zone, click on Select Time Zone and choose your time zone from the drop-down menu to ensure that your Configured Alerts aren't late!
- You can view and delete your Configured Alerts by clicking on View/Delete All Alerts.

Alerts can also be configured from www.wolfetech.com.
